

Croxteth Park 5k 23rd April 2003

Well Done to Alistair O'Connor who is the first person under 15 minutes on this course. Alistair was a very late entry only just making it to the start in time. Also congratulation to Gill Bacon on a fine win. Apologies to Bill Yoxall who just missed the start.

Must say thank you to Charlie Doyle whose bike got a puncture on the way from his home in Childwall. Charlie had agreed to act as tail bike, not put off by such a small matter he pushed his bike to Croxteth Park then walked/jogged around at the rear of the file! not bad for someone who has just turned 70.

Also thanks to Marc Laithwaite and students from St Helens College who provided free a much need service for tired legs.

Any prizes winners who never received their prize on the night should get them soon as they went out in the post on Thursday morning.

Many thanks to all who helped and all who ran
